TO: EMPLOYEES AND APPLICANTS FOR EMPLOYMENT

T.Y. Lin International (TYLI) reaffirms its commitment to providing Equal Employment Opportunity in its personnel policies and practices. It is TYLI's policy to recruit, hire, train and promote into all jobs levels, employees and applicants for employment without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, marital status, sexual preference, religious grooming practice, religious dress practice, gender identity, national origin, physical or mental disability, veteran status or any other protected classification under federal, state, or local law. All such decisions are based on (1) individual merit, qualifications, and competence as they relate to the particular position, and (2) promotion of the principle of equal employment opportunity.

All other personnel programs such as compensation, benefits, transfers, layoff, return from layoff, training, education, and social and recreational programs are administered without regard to race, color, religion, age, sex, national origin, gender identity, physical or mental disability, veteran status or any other protected classification under federal, state, or local law.

Under the legal authority of: Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 151B; Executive Order 478; the Equal Pay Act of 1963; Title VI and Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964; the Age Discrimination in Employment Act of 1967; the Equal Employment Opportunity Act of 1972; the Civil Rights Act of 1992; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973; the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990; the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993, I commit myself and my employees, within the context of these laws, to ensure equitable participation of minorities, women, Vietnam Era Veterans and persons with disabilities in all of its daily operations.

TYLI's employees and applicants for employment have the right to inquire about, discuss, or disclose their own compensation or that of other employees or applicants through ordinary means such as conversations with co-workers. TYLI will not discharge or in any other manner discriminate against any employee or applicant for employment because such employee or applicant has inquired about, discussed, or disclosed the compensation of the employee or applicant or another employee or applicant. This provision shall not apply to instances in which an employee who has access to the compensation information of other employees or applicants as a part of such employee's essential job functions discloses the compensation of such other employees or applicants to individuals who do not otherwise have access to such information, unless such disclosure is in response to a formal complaint or charge, in furtherance of an investigation, proceeding, hearing, or action, including an investigation conducted by the employer, or is consistent with the contractor's legal duty to furnish information.

In addition, unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment when submission to such conduct is made explicitly or implicitly a condition of an individual's employment or submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for an employment decision affecting the employee. No supervisor or manager shall threaten or insinuate, either explicitly or implicitly that an employee's submission to or rejection of sexual advances will in any way influence any personnel decision involving that employee.

Prohibited harassment includes conduct which has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with the employee's work performance or creating an environment which is intimidating, hostile or offensive to the employee. Harassment based on a person's race is also prohibited. Any employee who feels that a violation of this policy has occurred should immediately report the matter to their supervisor or Human Resources Director. TYLI has established an internal grievance procedure allowing employees to express his/her work-related concerns that may be construed as discrimination or unfair treatment regarding the policies described in this notice. Each complaint will be investigated and any violations will be remedied. The complaining employee will not be affected in employment with the company as a result of bringing the harassment complaints to the attention of the company.
